WE'VE GOT THE TOUCH

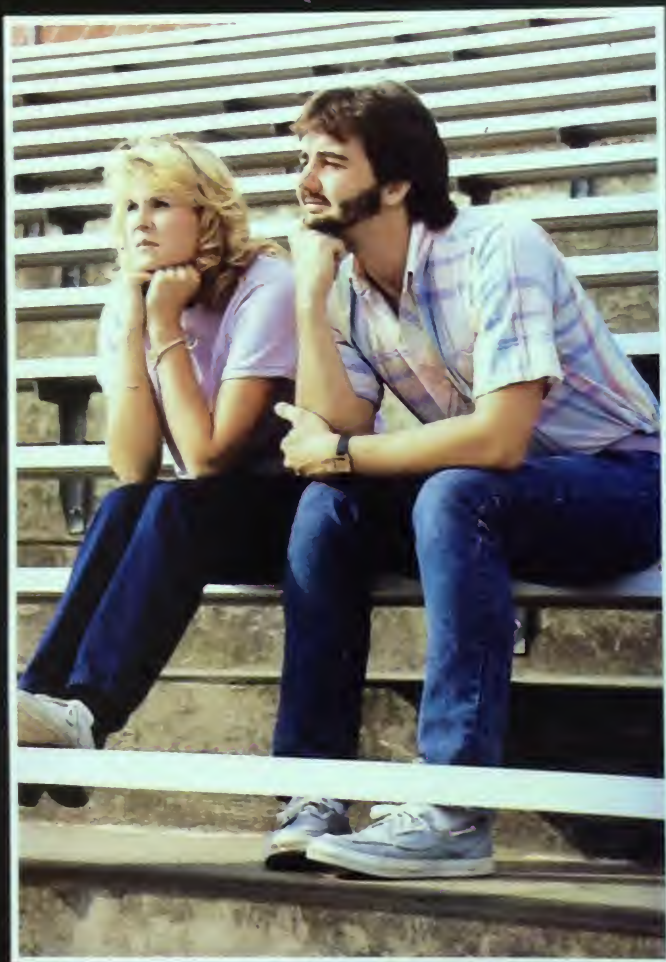

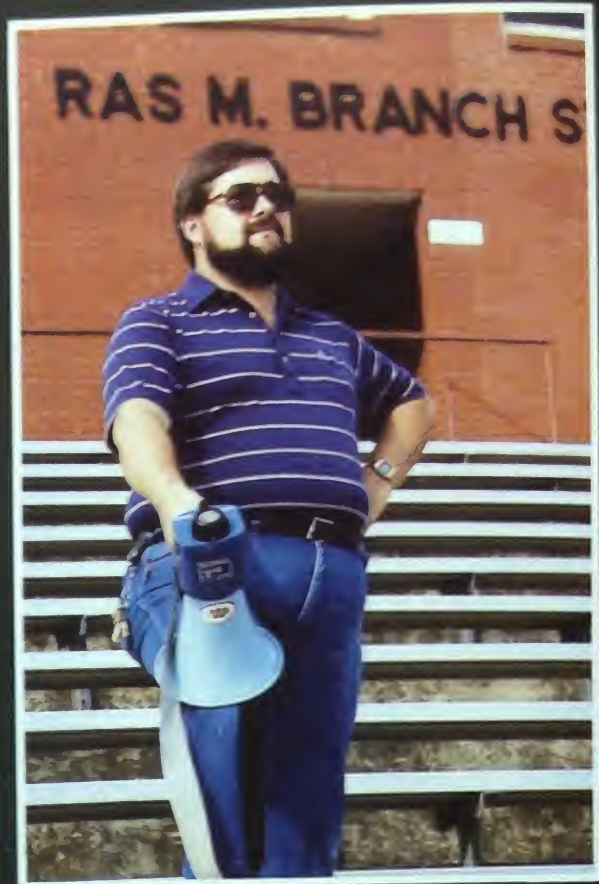

BEAUTY REVIEW

Andrea Minga, Most Beautiful
Freshman, Grenada

On the night of October 16, twenty-seven of HJC's loveliest girls competed for the title of most beautiful. After appearances in casual wear and evening gown, a panel of judges chose eight beauties and one most beautiful.

Andrea Minga, an 18 year old frshman from Grenada, was picked as the most beautiful girl for 1985. She is a graduate of Barbizon Modeling and Finishing School.

Two sophomores and six freshmen made up the other eight beauties.

Kim Clark, 19, and a sophomore from Kosciusko, was the 1984 homecoming queen. She was also selected as most courteous.

Linnea Edwards, an 18 year old freshman from Durant, was a cheerleader.

Jennifer Kimble was a cheerleader for two years, in the homecoming court two years, and selected as freshman class favorite. The nineteen year old sophomore was from Goodman.

Barbara Harris, 18, was a freshman cosmetology student. She was from Bentonina.

Marion Ledbetter was an 18 year old freshman from Benton. She was a maid in the 1984 homecoming court.

Angela McCulloch, 17, was a freshman from Eupora. She was also an HJC cherleader.

Ginny Shipp, an 18 year old freshman, was from Benton. She graduated from Benton Academy where she was selected Miss Benton Academy.

Eighteen year old Candy Tucker was a freshman from Durant. She was an HJC cheerleader, and was selected Miss East Holmes Academy.

SERVICE RECOGNITION

Mrs. Vuna Summerlin, affectionately known as "Big Mamma," has been a valued employee of HJC since 1971. Along with her husband, she works long hours as supervisor of the Recreational Hall. Her cheerful disposition and her willingness to be a "sounding board" have endeared her to students through the years. We appreciate you, "Big Mamma" and "Big Daddy."

DEDICATION

The 1985 Horizons is dedicated to Henry B. McClellan, Jr., who has served Holmes Junior College since 1966 in a number of capacities. The majority of his service has been that of Business Manager where he has performed his duties in an exemplary manner. Holmes Junior College is fortunate to have a person of Mr. McClellan's dedication to fill this responsible position.

The yearbook staff is pleased to honor Mr. McClellan in this way for his many years of loyal service.
